6. HAVE YOU SATISFIED THE REQUIRED WAITING PERIOD BEFORE FILING THIS PETITION? (THE NONDISCLOSURE OVERVIEW HELPED YOU TO DETERMINE THE APPLICABLE WAITING PERIOD FOR YOUR OFFENSE.)

IF YOU CANNOT ANSWER YES TO THE SIX QUESTIONS ABOVE, THIS IS NOT THE CORRECT PETITION FOR YOU.

You may be eligible for an order of nondisclosure under another section of the Government Code. You should return to the nondisclosure overview to determine if you are eligible for an order of nondisclosure under another section and to identify the correct form to use.

(If you checked this statement, you must wait two years from the date of completing your probation to file a petition for nondisclosure.) (If you have checked the second statement, you can file a petition for an order of nondisclosure on or after the date you complete your term of probation.)
- (14) There is a filing fee associated with filing a petition for order of nondisclosure under Section 411.073. The filing fee is the amount of the court’s regular civil filing fee plus an additional $28. Typically, the total filing fee is about $280. However, the amount varies from county to county. Please contact the clerk for the court in which you are filing the petition to obtain the correct amount of the total filing fee. NOTE: You do not have to pay the clerk to serve the petition on the attorney for the state (hereinafter “prosecutor”), Department of Public Safety (hereinafter “DPS”), or any other agency or entity, including any law enforcement entity. The statute requires the court, clerk, and DPS to notify the other parties of interest. See Sections 411.0745(e), 411.075(a) and 411.075(b), Government Code, respectively.

*As a general rule, you must pay the filing fee in order to file the petition. However, you may be eligible to file a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs in lieu of paying the filing fee. The statement is described in Rule 145 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. You may view Rule 145 online at <http://www.txcourts.gov/media/1435952/trcp-all-updated-with-amendments-effective-912016.pdf>. Please place a check mark or an “x” on the line before the statement that applies to you. Place a check mark or “x” in front of the first statement, if you are paying the filing fee. If you are submitting a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs instead, place a check mark or an “x” in front of the second statement.

Process After You Complete the Petition

If you are eligible for an order of nondisclosure under Section 411.073, the process for obtaining an order under this section is as follows:

First, make sure that you satisfy the waiting period requirement before filing your petition, and check in advance with the clerk’s office to obtain the total amount of the fee (including the $28 fee) to file a petition for an order of nondisclosure, unless you are submitting a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs in lieu of paying the fee. Next, be sure to complete the correct petition according to the instructions, and after you have done so, print both the petition and the Order of Nondisclosure. In most courts, you will have to submit a proposed order with your petition when you file it. The judge will complete the order, if the judge grants your request.

After you file the petition, the clerk will send it to the court, and the court will notify the prosecutor. Again, you should not have to pay the clerk to serve notice on the prosecutor or any other party.

A hearing on the petition is not required if the prosecutor does not request a hearing.

If a hearing is scheduled, the court or the clerk will notify you. If there is a hearing, the court may ask questions to establish whether you satisfy the requirements of Sections 411.074 and 411.073. After the hearing, if the court finds that you satisfy the requirements of the statutes and that issuance of the order of nondisclosure is in the best interest of justice, the court should grant your request for the order.

If the court does not hold a hearing, the judge will review your petition to determine whether you satisfy the requirements of the statutes and whether issuance of the order of nondisclosure is in the best interest of justice. If the court finds that you have satisfied the requirements of the law and that the issuance of the order is in the best interest of justice, the court should grant your request for the order.

The court and/or prosecutor will have access to your criminal history record information and will use it to determine if you are eligible to file the petition.

If the court grants the order of nondisclosure, no later than 15 business days after the order issues, the clerk will send a copy of the order to DPS. Then, no later than 10 business days after DPS receives the copy of the order, DPS will seal any criminal history record information that is the subject of the order and forward the order to the state and federal agencies listed in 411.075(b), Government Code. See Section 411.075(b) for a complete list of agencies and entities that DPS must notify.
