

What To Charge

CHAPTER III

WHAT TO CHARGE

A. INTRODUCTION

New court cost and fee charts are prepared every two years to reflect legislative changes. The current charts represent changes made by the 79th Legislature. The first chart is for conviction of offenses committed on or after September 1, 2005 but before December 1, 2005. The second chart is for conviction of offenses committed on or after December 1, 2005 but before January 1, 2006. The third chart is for conviction of offenses committed on or after January 1, 2006.

Using the Current Charts

Basic state court costs and fees are listed across the chart. The abbreviations used are:

- CCC Consolidated court cost;
- JRF Jury reimbursement fee;
- JSF Judicial support fee;
- STF State traffic fine;
- EMS EMS trauma fund; and
- DNA DNA testing.

Note the asterisk (*) in the far right-hand column indicating that certain other costs and fees need to be added to the total when they apply. Offense descriptions are listed on the left-hand side of the chart.

Violations are divided into five categories. The first category is Parent Contributing to Nonattendance and Failure to Attend School. The second category covers all Rules of the Road offenses that are found in Subtitle C of Title 7 in the Transportation Code. The third category covers offenses in Chapter 49 of the Penal Code. The fourth category covers Penal Code DNA Testing offenses. The fifth category, All Other Offenses, is for all offenses not included in the first four categories.

Additional local court costs and fees also need to be added when they apply. Refer to Chapters One and Two of this handbook for detailed information on individual costs and fees.

Prior Charts

Occasionally, courts need court cost and fee information for offenses that occurred prior to January 1, 2004. Charts for the most recent years, representing changes made by the 73rd – 78th Legislatures, are included. If you need court cost and fee information for an offense that occurred prior to August 30, 1993, contact the Comptroller's Local Government Division toll free at 1-800-531-5441, extension 34679.
